

Father's Day '09 Small Group Questions

Scripture: Malachi 4:5-6

- If you were to describe your home life when you were growing up by using weather terms, how would you describe it?
- What is one of your greatest memories of your dad?
- If you could encourage a young father in any way, what would you say to them?
- The scripture refers to a day when fathers and children will be restored. How would you describe our day as far as father and children relations? In your opinion, what has contributed the most to current father/children relations?
- How can a godly father know that he has been successful in fathering his children?
