

Do You Have the Power of One?

- What was the best thing about growing up in your home? The worst thing about growing up in your home?
- What is one thing that you remember about your life before following Christ that has definitely changed?
- In what areas of your life is God really growing you currently?
- Is the return of Christ much on your mind? Why or why not?
- What is one group of people that really stirs your heart? {Ex: singles, poor, children, ladies...} How might God use you to specifically minister in with that people group?
- Agape love is a love without conditions. What do you think this looks like in our day and in our culture?
- Who is the 'unlovely' that God is calling you to love in a tangible way this week?
