Discussion Questions

1. Check with each man at the table. Are there any prayer needs? Any way they could use a hand? Collect contact info from everyone at your table.
2. What benefit is there in knowing how things will play out in the future?
3. How does knowing this book doesn't originate with John, but in fact is from Jesus Himself, help us prepare to listen to it and obey what's in it?
4. What does the number 7 symbolize?
5. Why should we listen to the words in this book?
6. Do you have an expectancy to hear from God? Why or why not? How's your time in the Word?
7. Do you have a posture of obedience? What if God tells you to do something hard? Are you prepared to obey? What is wrong with just listening but not actually doing what he says?
8. Is there something you need to obey God in right now? What is it? What steps can you take this week to obey God?
9. War is coming. Whose side are you on? How do I know?
10. Spend some time praying for one another in your group. If you need prayer, ask for it. Have someone in the group pray for you specifically.
